

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law works for the people in this state.

I would urge the federal government to stay out of an issue that the people in the State of Indiana have dealt with by enacting legislation that would diminish our success, or preempt the laws we have chosen to live by.